

Property Repair & Maintenance Evening Event

Wednesday 22nd May 5:30pm - 7.30pm

Does your property need some TLC?

Repair and ongoing maintenance of properties is becoming ever more critical.....

Hypostyle Architects have worked with homeowners for many years providing a professional service to help them repair and maintain their properties. To that end we have organised an Evening Event in collaboration with the Dalkeith Townscape heritage Initiative(THI) and Conservation Area Regeneration(CARS) together with the Gorebridge CARS to provide building owners with the tools required to ascertain their buildings' condition, and demonstrate how to carry out repairs and ensure correct maintenance of their property.

Vital information will be provided to help you:

- Find out the condition of your property
- Find out the process required to repair and maintain your property
- Learn what funding options are available to you
- Get tips on getting your neighbours together to carry out the works
- Speak with knowledgeable professionals who can start you off on the right track
- Pick up information/leaflets to help

There will be short presentations from:

- Jo Parry, Conservation Architect, Hypostyle Architects: The importance of repairing properties and advice on how to get started.
- Rodd Lugg, Dalkeith THI/CARS Project Manager, Midlothian Council: The experience of the Dalkeith THI/CARS grant scheme and advice to home owner.
- John McKinney, NFRC: The condition of Scotland's homes.
- Alex Stark, Stone Federation: Identifying defective stonework & the process of its repair/ replacement.
- John Laing, Edinburgh College: Construction and Building Crafts advice.
- Ali Davey, Historic Scotland: Advice on appropriate repair and maintenance, covering all key areas of your building and the HS Inform guides available to help.
- Simon Roberts, Scottish Government: Fundamental information on the Tenement Act, encouraging owners to work together with their neighbours.

Following the presentations there will be help desks available where people can ask questions or get further information/leaflets.

Venue: Dalkeith Arts Centre, 2 White Hart St, Dalkeith EH22 1AE

Time: 5:30pm - 7.30pm (refreshments provided)
