

WELCOME TO DAME

DAME'S free Spring Arts Workshop Programme

Workshops are held in the Dalkeith Arts Centre within Dalkeith Library

The history, architecture and future of the Dalkeith Corn Exchange

Date and Time: Saturday April 26th 2014 10.00am to 12.30pm (Max class size 8)

Led by chartered architect and town planner Rod Lugg, Project Manager for the Dalkeith and Gorebridge regeneration schemes and John McLeish project Manager at Melville Housing Association.

Discover something about the history and architecture of the Corn Exchange, one of Dalkeith's most important historic buildings. There will be the chance to visit the impressive interior and draw the outside and the inside of the building.

Bring: your own sketch pad and pencils and have a go at sketching the building. Hard hats and high viz jackets will be available for the site visit.

Design workshop for children

Date and Time: Thursday 1st of May 9:30am - 11:00am (Max class size 10)

Led by Donna Strachan

Putting on a design workshop for children. The aim of the workshop is to guide children through the process of design by helping them to develop their art into designs and then into products. Children will work on a design at the workshop which will later be printed onto T-shirts, mugs, puzzles or bags. The workshop gives children a great sense of achievement to have a finished product that they can either use themselves or give as a present.
